MINE WORKERS PROMISE NO GENERAL STRIKE

Partial Tie-up Results In Indiana Coal Fields Over Check-off Order

W. Va. Miners To Work Under Protest—Men
Quit Work In Ohio
Mines On Monday

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—Partial tie-up of the Indiana field was reported this morning as the result of the ruling of the Supreme Court on the collection of the check-off. Five mines in the district are shut down.

If a strike is called it will be based on the award of the Bituminous Coal Commission and upon the letter of President Wilson to the miners and Operators associations in 1917.

Will Work Under Protest.

Charleston, W. Va.—"They will work under protest until such time as the matter can be adjusted," said J.
W. Houston, attorney for the United Mine Workers of America, this morning. "It hardly see where this decision of Judge Anderson can affect the miners in the West Virginia field as there is already a case pending before Judge Anderson on this subject," continued Attorney Houston, "and the hearing will be held on November 16th or 17th." "In case this court decides against us, steps will be taken to carry the case to the Federal Court of Appeals at Chicago," Mr. Houston declared.

309 Miners Walkout.

Athens, Ohio.—Three hundred miners at a mine located here walked out this morning. They refused to work following the ruling of the Supreme Court relative to the collection of the check-off. Several other Athens County mines are expected to be shut down during the day for the same reason.

Illinois Miners Prepare For Strike.
Chicago, Nov. 1.—Several hundred Illinois coal miners were reported to have struck on the night some caught in protest against Judge A. B. Anderson's "check off injunction" according to advices received at general offices of coal operators here.

Resolves ordering their mine foremen to prepare for strike the mine operators instructed businessmen not to carry further orders removal and to cancel what contracts were now made wherever possible.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF NEW STATE GAS TAX LAW ATTACKED BY BIG CORPORATION

Atlantic Refining Company Refuses To Pay Part Of Gasoline Tax Demanded

(By United Press.)
Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—The constitutionality of the new Gas Tax law was attacked today when the Atlantic Refining Company refused to pay the tax on gasoline it sold for export or for interstate commerce or for manufacturing.

The company sent a check for $39, 426.10 to Auditor General Lewis to pay the tax on gasoline sold by stations for use in automobiles but accompanied the check with a statement that it was sent under protest since the company had been advised by counsel that the act was unconstitutional.

Ignore Other Products No return at all was made by the company for sales of gasoline for export, interstate commerce, or manufacturing.

"The legal question will be referred immediately to the Attorney General for such purposes as he may see fit," said Auditor General Lewis.

Attorney General Alter will probably bring an action for the collection of the tax it was indicated. This will bring to an issue the constitutionality of the tax. Returns so far indicated the tax will produce $200,000 a month, said Lewis.

Check Off Injunction Will Not Result In Nation Wide Strike Labor Editor Proclaims Restraining Order Part Of U. S. Steel Campaign

Indianapolis.—There will be no authorized nation wide coal strike in protest against the check off injunction granted by Judge A. B. Anderson, it was learned here today.

There may be some walkouts, but they will not spread throughout the country nor will they be by the international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America.

Reports have reached miners headquarters of a tie up of the Indiana mines. Only five mines in the state are known to be affected but the reports were incomplete.

If a general strike should be called against Judge Anderson's order, the call would be based on the award of the Bituminous coal commission two years ago, inserting the check off system in the contract and a subsequent from President Wilson directing the mine's and the operators to follow the dictates of the award.

President John L. Lewis and other international officers of the union will follow the assurance they gave Judge Anderson to obey his temporary order restraining them from sending money into West Virginia for the purpose of unionizing the open shop region where open shop region where civil war recently waged.

Ellis Searles, editor of the United Mine Workers Journal, declared today that the United States Steel Corporation owning more than 85,000 acres of land in West Virginia was back of the efforts of operators to prevent further attempt to unionize the Mingo district.

"The U. S. Steel Corporation is out to destroy labor unions," he said. "It knows very well that if it can break up the United Mine Workers it can break up any or all of the others."

WAR DEPT. DENIES WATSON CHARGES

Claims Georgia Senator's Tale Of Soldier Hung Without Trial Is Absolutely False.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 1.—War Department officers today denied vigorously Sen. Watson's charges of shooting and hanging of American soldiers without court martial. General Pershing sent a message from Kansas City also denying the charges, it was stated.

Col. Kroger, in charge of court martial, said ten or eleven soldiers were executed and all were properly tried.

War Department records show 161 life sentences during the war, chiefly for military offenses.

Pictures No Proof.
Secretary Weeks said, "I don't know what Sen. Watson means or thinks he means. A picture of the gallows is no proof." Watson, in a speech before the senate today, exhibited a picture of the gallows said to have been used to hang soldiers without trial.

of the National Coal Association to block Anti Trust Law proceedings of the Dept. of Justice against it and 226 coal dealers pending in the Federal Court at Indianapolis failed by action of the District of Columbia

Ex-Doughboys Give Great Ovation To Three Big Leaders Of Allied Armies

President Condemns In Resolution In Circulation At Kansas Session

(By United Press.)
Kansas City, Oct. 1.—18,000 ex-doughboys welcomed with a great ovation their three chiefs who sent them into battle in France.

Marshal Foch, and General Pershing, Jacques and Diaz entered the hall this morning and were greeted with an ovation that rocked the hall to its very foundations.

The Legion greeted Pershing's speech with all sorts of a noise and cheered him to the echo. Pershing's speech was brought to a dramatic close when he asked the boys to have their heads for a moment in silence prayer, for their comrades who sleep in France.

Resolutions condemning President Harding were circulated among the delegates to the convention. The text of the resolution was bitter in its condemnation of Harding for his apparent lack of interest and understanding of the situation for the returned soldiers, his lack of using more effort to further the education of wounded doughboys.

D. A. R. TO MARK POST OFFICE SITE

Funds Raised To Purchase Suitable Marker
For Spot Where First
P. O. In County Stood.

Clearfield Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution who are marking the sites of the many historic spots of this section are familiarizing themselves with some of the early history of our county by making the sites of the many historic spots hereabouts, held the first of a series of lectures at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Duffon on West Market street Monday, evening for the purpose of raising funds for the purpose stated.

Several years ago the D. A. R. suitably marked the site of the old Indian mill along the State road to Woodland and near the new Mt.
Union Brief works. Since that time other historic spots has been given a great deal of thought and at last a plan has been marked out by these patriotic descendants of the pioneers who bore the hardships of the early settlement of this section of Pennsylvania. To carry out the plan of bridge contests was decided upon as a pleasant way to raise such funds.

A handsome sum was realized at last night's gathering and this money will be used to purchase a suitable marker for the first postoffice in Clearfield county.

There are many other historic spots in this neighborhood and it is the D. A. R.'s intention to have them all marked for the benefit of posterity within a very short time.

FORMER LOCAL MAN SHOT BY HUNTER

Robt. Heberling Slightly Wounded By Too Anxious Nimrod In Turkey Hunt.

Robert Heberling, of Tyrone, a former Clearfield resident and brother-in-law of Editor G. A. Stewart, was accidentally shot while hunting wild turkeys near Port Matilda Monday morning. Mr. Heberling had gone hunting with a couple of Tyrone friends. He was lucky enough to run into a flock of turkeys soon after getting into the woods and succeeded in killing his turkey.

Picking up the turkey Mr. Heber-ling was holding the dead bird in his hand while he reached in his pocket for a string with which to tie its legs together, preparatory to carrying it in.

A Centre county hunter named Allen who was in the woods on the side hill below Mr. Heberling caught sight of the dead turkey and failing to note that it was in the possession of a hunter, promptly took a shot at it. His aim was true, and he hit the turkey right, but three of his bullets struck him in the face and passed thru his jaw, lodging in the side of his head back of the ear. Another bullet hit his shoulder and a third his left arm.

Injuries Not Serious When shot Mr. Heberling called to the shooter and told him what he had done. Allen came up to his victim and a badly scared man and offered him most profuse apologies for his careless act, but said that while he plainly saw the turkey, he could not see Mr. Heberling who was standing in the brush holding the dead bird by the legs.

Mr. Heberling was very little wounded by his experience and was at his home in Tyrone with his turkey on Monday. The shot wound embedded too deeply to be removed and will be allowed to remain where they are if no complications arise.

Mrs. Blase Bellas, of Punxsutawney, in a critical condition as the result of getting tangled in the rolls of a quilling machine in the Punxsutawney throwing company plant at 11:05

The girl was working on the machine with her hair hanging down her back and stooped to pick up something when her hair caught in the quilling roll. She was carried under the roll of the machine four times, when her scalp gave way, detaching her skull flesh and tearing the flesh away to a point beyond her shoulder blade.

There is a slight chance for her recovery.

HUNTERS FAIL TO GET OFF TO A FLYING START

Drizzling Rain Spoils Hopes Of Several Thousand Nimrods In County Tues. Morning

NO ACCIDENTS REPORTED HERE

New Season Opening
Hunting License Record Is Established In Clearfield County.

The drenching downpour of rain which started in about 5 o'clock this morning and continued almost intermittently all day long, sadly interfered with the operations of the six or seven thousand Clearfield county hunters who expected to take advantage of the opening of the small game and bear season in Pennsylvania.

However the weather, bad as it was, could not head off the real, sure enough Nimrod and possibly half the number eligible to do so by reason of their hunter's license was out at daybreak and combed hill and dale in their search for game.

Game Stays at Home.

Birds, rabbits and squirrels possessed better sense than the hunters and stayed close to home with the result that very few local sports returned with the legal bag limit of any kind of game. Rabbits were especially scarce, thanks to the weather, and as the birds sought out the densest thickets to get out of the rain of what few hunters were located the majority scurried the gun of the hunter because of the difficult shooting.

No Accidents Here.

We did not hear of a single hunting accident in this—immediate section, which fact is highly creditable to the judgement and good sense shown by our local hunters while in the field.

The total number of hunters licenses issued by the County Treasurer's office thus far fell just a few short of 3000. This is 300 in excess of the number issued up to the opening of the small game season in Clearfield county last year.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN MEET TO FORMULATE PLANS TO GET OUT VOTE NEXT TUESDAY

Democratic Candidate For Borough Burgess Post

The Democratic women of Clearfield met with Borough Chairman B.
E. Shirley and the local organization for the purpose of appointing their Committee's and formulating plans, for getting out the vote on election day.

J. Fred Weaver, who was nominated for Burgess on the Democratic ticket at the recent primary elections, finds that he would be unable to serve in this position even though elected, and as his name was placed upon the ticket without his consent, he filed his withdrawal with the County Commissioners following the primary election.

The names of Frank Kittelberger, of the Third Ward, the Market street placed upon the ticket for Burgess in place of Mr. Weaver and he will be the local, Democratic standard-bearer at next Tuesday's election.

PREPARE TO VOTE

With election day less than a week away, it behooves all voters, and particularly the women voters, to begin to think about casting their ballot in the serious light of a duty to be performed. For the right of the ballot is nothing more than a duty. The women were not conferred a privilege when they were given the right of suffrage. Far be from such. They were given a duty, and a highly important one, to carry out.

That duty is to go to the polls next Tuesday morning and vote in the just light of your convictions. The issues at stake this election, while not surrounded by the flare and red light of a presidential campaign, are just as important, if not more so than the election of a president.

The selection of officials to handle affairs right here at home is one not to be lightly considered. Make sure that Clearfield and Clearfield county will have honest, upright officials during the next term of office.

The action of the Daughters of the American Revolution in arranging to place nameplates in spots of historic interest in this county is one to be commended. Too many people are prone to look afar for their Halls of Fame. This should not be.

The places closest to home which have had to do with the making of Clearfield county history, should bear a place of first importance in the thoughts of all Clearfield county residents today.

With inclement weather prevailing for the first day of the hunting season, the list of hunters' fatalities over the state is as yet small. How about every hunter doing his best to keep it small?

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

this neighborhood.

Deceased bore his suffering of those long years with christian fortitude which only a christian and a firm believer in an eternal home with the Master at the end can, and very few complaints were ever heard to come from his lips through all of his 33 years of affliction. He was a man who held the entire respect of all on his street, from the youngest to the eldest, he having a word of good cheer for all. He had been ailing more than usual for some months back and realized that a final parting was soon to take place from family and earth yet no doubt ever entered his mind but what the Lord would take him to a world where he would be free from pain and all ills of an earthly life.

His funeral was held from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon, the body being followed to the grave by a large concourse of relatives and friends, it being laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery. Just one-half of his life was spent in an invalid's chair, being unable to go any distance from home unless assisted by some friend or neighbor. Frank Haney was an honest man, a real friend to those worse off financially than he, and a valuable citizen.

A small building adjoining the A. M. Kirk property and which has been used many years as a barber shop will be removed up town and located in rear of the bank building and still be conducted as a barber shop.

Owing to the vigorous efforts of the police force not a great deal of damage was reported as being done about town either on Saturday or Monday evening.

The first series of a five course entertainment held under auspices of the High School was held on Monday evening. A goodly number were in attendance and the program was fine.

Mrs. Lew LaPorte was taken suddenly ill on Sunday evening becoming necessary to summon a physician twice ere she received any relief.

Every man who owned a gun or a dog bit out for the woods Tuesday morning in quest of the festive rabbit.

THE SECRET OF BABE RUTH'S SUCCESS!

Scientific tests prove that the greatest baseball batter of all time is due to his supernormal eye. "Babe's" eyes are quicker than those of the average man by 12 per cent; only one person in 500 has such steady nerves. Ruth's success clearly demonstrates the advantages of good vision—of steady nerves.

Where Ruth's eyes are above normal, the eyes of most men—fully 70 per cent.—are below normal—and they don't know it! An eye examination may prove the turning point in your career.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

"By Skinner"

Dear Skinner:

I think I got a case against you for libel, you falsified my army record. I never done time during the Civil War in Andersonville. But I did serve time in Libby, Soulsbury and Belle Island. Again I did not like the Rebel Jack Hammond after the war. Now Jack was an ungrateful Johnny Reb. Before the war we were both volunteer fire fighters. Jack belonged in Baltimore and was a member of the Monumental Hose Company. I was a Philadelphian and a member of the Good Will Engine Company. The Good Will entertained the Monumental boys, housed their apparatus and paid all their expenses on several occasions when they visited the city. Jack Hammond was always along and we became friends. When I was ushered into the Provost Marshal's office at Richmond as a prisoner of war, who showed up there as a private detective in the service of the Southern confederacy but Jack Hammond I thought sure with a friend at headquarters I would be taken care of. But Jack turned me down cold and helped to march nine of my company over to the old tobacco ware house, Libby Prison, where we laid for three days with one tin cup of bean soup and two hard biscuits. I saw Jack on one or two occasions, but he never recognized me. I met Jack after the war in Philadelphia and I wanted to give him the licking you said I did, but my friends persuaded me to let bygones be bygones. The war was over, "Let us have Peace." But I did give Jack a good lecture and told him where to get off at.

I write this correction so that my army friends down home don't think I have been stringing you Clearfielders. A few are still living of the old 68d Regiment.

THOS. E. CLARK

Dr. William D. Hemmen, noted New York surgeon, whose wife is suing him for divorce takes the following aim at all women:

"The ages and viewpoints of women are interesting. The viewpoint of a woman changes completely at the age of twenty-eight, again at thirty-five and again at forty-five."

"There is romance and blindness and illusion that gradually vanishes by the time she reaches twenty-eight. But children and the maternal spirit tide her over until she is about thirty-five. Then she begins to look at facts and calculate calmly on life and to take what she wants."

"If her husband suits her, very well; if not, a dance, the man who does suit her and cocktails will precipitate the difficulty into a real trouble."

"Then at forty-five comes the time when a woman loses a lot of her independence, for she is not the woman of power that she was before. She will often prove a dangerous element when the slightest difficulty arises on the scene of her marital life."

"In society some statistics have been compiled that show that the average husband doesn't remain in love with his wife after three months."

Mayor Couzens, of Detroit, is urging that the unemployment problem be solved by separating all married women from the good jobs they are holding in offices throughout the land. Mayor Jim thinks when a man marries a woman he ought to be able to keep her at home instead of sending her out into the marts of trade to earn her living.

They say a "burnt child dreads the fire" but of all the European nations Belgium, which suffered so much in the world war, is the only one which is outspoken against disarmament now. King Albert says: "The maintenance of armaments is essential to world peace. Belgium certainly will not allow herself to be placed in a position where a stronger nation might invade. Military precautions will be necessary in Europe for many years."

"And Man, How I Did Eat Real Food!"

Looking back, now, to those vacation days, there's a lively kindling of joy—even in the memory of appetite at camp-fire meals.

Real food—and real hunger!

That's the year-around relationship between appetite and Grape-Nuts—that crisp and wholesome gift from the great out-of-doors—the perfected goodness of Nature's best food grains.

There's a flavor and charm to Grape-Nuts that appeal to the appetite like the tang of the summer camp, and there's a scientific balance of nutrition and a readiness of digestion that make Grape-Nuts a wonderful aid to health and vigor.

"Real food!" is the verdict of enthusiastic thousands who find a daily delight in the unique sweetness and crispness of Grape-Nuts, and who "carry on" splendidly with its body-building nourishment.

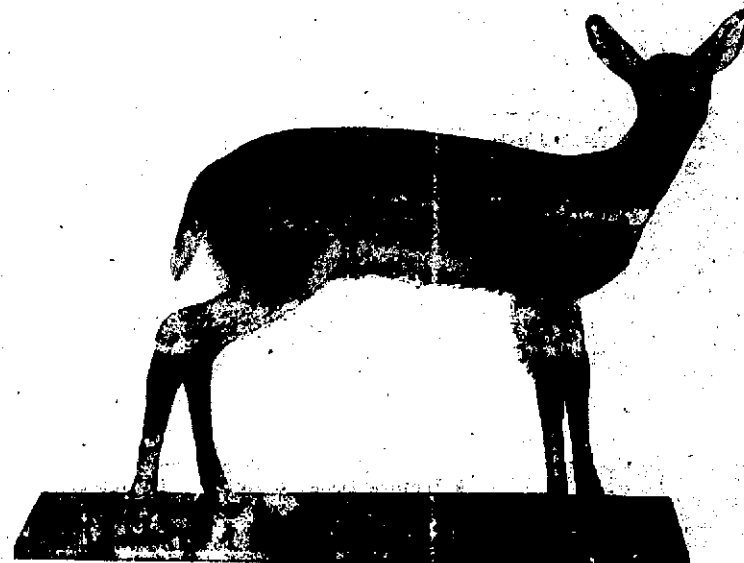

Let the zest of appetite be a companion of your indoor meals, too.
